

British Riding Clubs Riding Test & Style Jumping Training Day

Sunday 21 April 2013 - Milton Keynes Eventing Centre

Castlethorpe Road, Hanslope, Milton Keynes, Bucks MK19 7HQ

How to Judge Riding Tests - 10am to 1pm

The morning session will focus on how to judge the new BRC Riding Tests and will look in detail at what is required from both horse/pony and rider and how the new scoring system works.

Riding Test Test Riders - are an essential requirement to the success of these sessions. If you know of any members who would like to take part as a test rider to practise their skills and take the opportunity to ride the new Riding Tests in a competition like but stress free environment, please contact Lucy Stokes, British Riding Clubs training department - email: l.stokes@bhs.org.uk

How to Judge Style Jumping - 2pm to 4pm

The afternoon session will involve a course walk, how to set-up and use timing equipment, followed by riders individually jumping round the course. This session will focus on the correct way to ride and judge a style jumping competition, also covering the new rule change relating to the time allowed of 325mpm.

Style Jumping Test Riders - If you know of any members who would like to take part as a test rider and practise their skills over a course of show jumps in a competition environment, please contact Lucy Stokes, British Riding Clubs training department - email: l.stokes@bhs.org.uk

The Day is FREE, however refreshments are not included, but the caterer will be open and will sell a range of fast food and refreshments.
